No ſooner I could prattle it, as forward Miſses do,
Than how I long'd, and ſigh'd to hear, my Dolly prattle too;
I curl'd her hair in ringlets neat, and dreſs'd her very gay,
And yet the ſulky huſſy not a ſyllable would ſay.

3

Provok'd, that to my queſtions kind, no anſwer I could get,
I ſhook the little huſſy well- and whipp'd her in a pet: —
My mother cry'd, Oh! fie upon't, pray let your doll alone,
If e'er you wiſh to have a pretty baby of your own!

4

My head on this I bridled up, and threw the play thing by,
Altho' my ſiſter ſnubb'd me for't, I know the reaſon why —
I fancy ſhe would wiſh to keep the ſweet-hearts all her own,
But that ſhe ſha'n't, depend upon't, when I'm a woman grown!
